

ABOUT THE STATE

Happenings of Interest from Different Sections.

Morrisville is to have a big celebration in honor of her returning soldiers on July 4.

Large herds of cattle and flocks of sheep are being turned out to pasture in New Haven.

No trace has been found of the Overland car belonging to Mr. McKen, which was stolen in Burlington about a week ago.

An injury to one foot of Mrs. Frank Snow of Sharon caused gangrene to set in, after which that leg was amputated at the knee, but the poison caused her death last week.

At the hospital where Martin Norton, Jr., of Newport was taken after one eye had been injured by an exploding cartridge, it was found necessary to remove the eye in order to save the other.

Rev. Arthur E. Gregg of Marlborough, N. H., has accepted a call to the Congregational church at Barre and will begin his pastorate Sunday. Mr. Gregg has been with the Marlborough church seven years.

Raymond Thompson of Bennington, a former U. V. M. student, received a commission of first lieutenant while serving overseas because of his knowledge of seven languages. He has been appointed to a position in the department of justice in Boston.

After a month or more of discussion pro and con regarding the changing of the names of Calais street Flat street and Front street in Brattleboro, it was voted at the annual village meeting Tuesday evening to let the names remain as they are now.

Wallace B. Halbert, 73, who had been town clerk of St. Albans Town since the town and city were divided in 1897, except for one year, died at his home in St. Albans May 4, after 10 days' illness.

Rev. A. S. Clark, pastor of the Methodist church at Hinesburg and Benson and other places in the Burlington district, has completed 50 years in the ministry. In 1868 he walked five miles to cast his first vote for Grant.

The ladies' sewing circle of the First Universalist church of Morrisville has filed articles of association in the office of the secretary of state for the purpose of conducting such work as generally conducted by similar organizations. The papers are signed by Edna C. Bellows, Myrtle Ober, Katie Hutchins, Anna Forster and Maria Tinker of Morrisville.

Lieut. Henry Gonyeau of the British royal flying corps, who graduated from Middlebury college in 1906, has returned after much service overseas, and with him came his bride, whom he married over there. The ladies in Montreal and made the trip by automobile from there to the home of Lieut. Gonyeau's parents in New York.

A horse, buggy and harness were sold at auction to Samuel Benoure of St. Albans hill this week by the customs officer for $75. This was the one seized April 17, when Andrew Lionmont of Pigeon Hill, St. Johns, Que., was arrested for attempting to smuggle a Chinaman into this country and was accidentally detected between Milton and Burlington by Inspector J. P. Johnson of St. Albans.

Auction Sale
— OF —
REAL ESTATE AND PERSONAL PROPERTY!

As I am leaving in a short time to make my home in the South, I will sell at public auction to the highest bidder, at my premises at Washington, Vt., on SATURDAY, MAY 10, 1919 at 12:30 o'clock in the afternoon, the following described real estate and personal property:

MY HOME PLACE
—consisting of 7 acres, mostly tillage land; nice fruit orchard; the land is in a good state of cultivation and close to one of the best garden truck markets in New England. The buildings are in good condition, electric lights, running water and all modern conveniences. Barn is new and handy. The barn and house are nicely arranged for a much-needed doctor in town.

PERSONAL PROPERTY:
One good yearling colt, sired by the government horse Dundee; 11 full-blooded White Leghorn hens and roosters; 1 rubber-trimmed harness, in good condition; 1 hand garden cultivator and a lot of other garden tools; 1 hand sled; 1 wheelbarrow and many other small articles around the barn not listed; 1 good ice chest, 1 chamber suite, 2 iron bedsteads, mattresses and feather beds, 1 telephone and stock, including a lot of insulated wire and 12 call bells; a whole washing outfit, 4 good mirrors, 4 stoves, 3 Glenwoods, 2 of which are nearly new.

FURNITURE, DISHES, etc.: 1 buffet, 1 fur coat, cap and gloves, 1 buffalo coat, 1 wolf robe, 4 gasoline lamps, 1 street gasoline lamp, kerosene lamps, chairs, 3 or 4 of the nice, large, easy kind; 1 music cabinet, stands, tables—one of them is a large extension table; 1 very old clock, 1 good Singer sewing machine, dishes of all kinds and varieties, 1 book secretary, 1 bookcase, 1 chiffonier, books which include schoolbooks, novels, classics, a lot of stone jars, nice pictures and good frames with glass, wash bowls and pitchers, and many other things not advertised. All this stuff is practically new, if you have seen it you know, if you have not, come and look it over.

Rain or shine, this sale will go on, as everyone here can get under cover if stormy during the auction. Sales less than $10, cash.

DR. WM. O. HUTCHINSON,
CHAS. H. McALLISTER, Auctioneer.

APPLY POSLAM
END DISTRESS
OF ITCHY SKIN

It isn't the quantity of any remedy you put on your skin that works the desired results, and in quality Poslam excels. Satisfaction from its use comes because its healing powers are concentrated and just a little does so much. Try this! Spread Poslam over that itching skin affection at night. Then dim the lights from your mind. Sleep soundly and next morning, examine the skin and see just what Poslam has done.

Sold everywhere. For free sample write to: Emergency Laboratories, 243 West 47th street, New York City.

And Poslam Soap, being medicated with Poslam, will benefit your skin when used daily for toilet and bath—Adv.

If Mothers Only Know
During these days when many children are complaining of headache, feverishness, stomach troubles and irregular bowels, if mothers only knew what Mother Gray's Sweet Powders would do for their children, no family would ever be without them. These powders are so easy and pleasant to take and so effective in their action that mothers who once use them always tell other mothers about them. Sold by druggists everywhere—Adv.
